

MJ

MJ was solely funded by the Trust. Weekly high performance coaching lessons were supported by the charity with an internationally experienced coach. Her program involved individual lessons, fitness and conditioning sessions. She is a prodigious talent, playing in National tournaments, has represented Great Britain and reached a ranking of 163 in Women's tennis in this country while still only 13 during 2015.

“The support of the All Stars Trust is going to help me become an international champion like Serena Williams.”
